Assembly instructions for cylinder head cover 728.170

In addition to the cylinder head cover including gasket, the scope of supply of the Elring cylinder head cover 728.170 includes assembly instructions, a red sealing plug and an open valve plug.

The supplied red sealing plug usually has to be mounted as shown on the product image below.

In the case of vehicle models that have been specially manufactured for the Korean or American market, the open valve plug has to be mounted instead of the red sealing plug. Can be seen in the image on the left.
