Fig. 2: Optimized design with new seal concept

As part of the on-going development of our products, deflection pulley 532 0505 10 has been modified.

Schaeffler Automotive Aftermarket now only offers the deflection pulley with a new seal concept (Fig. 2). The optimized design eliminates the need for the protective disc.

Both versions meet the technical specifications and can be used without restriction.

Please observe the vehicle manufacturer specifications!
